

That wooden House | by Pierre Rausch

A saxophone's tone guillotined
Developed by an eye on Springfield
Movie stars that you love and hate
To another home that wooden kate

That wooden house and a lob
Strick the jewelry to the railway cops

Coconut, Tetris and raft
A hustler smokes what is left
The director has enough to read
Write miseries on sheet

That wooden house and a lob
Strick the jewelry to the railway cops

Note: Repeat first couple and chorus twice, you can repeat the second and third chorus as many times as you want, it's not strictly defined
