

The curtain of silence

Capo 1

x0231      x02210      022010
There is daylight, could tell that much
x0231      x02210      022010
Without moving, the small touch
x0231      x02210      022010
But the tinder caught, the dry grass
x0231      x02210      022010
The curtain of silence, the white soldiers pass

Chorus 2***

530      553      332
There is peace in our home
There is peace in our cities
There is peace in our countries
This world is full of peace

x0231      x02210      022010
At Las Vegas again, sideways
x0231      x02210      022010
Presented another stark contrast
x0231      x02210      022010
When a wind blew a blur from his side
x0231      x02210      022010
Instincts told it to squeeze

Chorus 2***

530      553      332
There is peace in our home
There is peace in our cities
There is peace in our countries
This world is full of peace

xx758      x757      535
If it lacked the splendor of a true curtain
Readers may wonder about this
The accuracy of the events in this
A true curtain may speak in silence
And the length that one man will go

xx0231      x02210      022010
There is peace in our home
There is peace in our cities
These countries are full of peace
This world is full of peace
530      553      332
There is peace in our home
There is peace in our cities
There is peace in our countries
This world is full of peace

Chorus can also be played with xx758 x757 535 toward the end
