

They're really nice people by Pierre Rausch

When he hugged her, after
She was going – they'll warm up
They're really nice people
Just give them some time
She likes to get out with her dog
That's all she wants
I think she's scared. She was a simple girl
Who had grown up on farm

What do you think of them ?
I think they're competent and smart
They're really nice people, oh yes they are...

A devoted family man in race of time
Only later, in a choked voice to survive
Take care of yourself. Call me if you need me
Be a good girl, figure it out
She said softly, up everything she loved
They both knew, they had to be careful now
It was over within minutes, they could barely breathe
It had happened all so quickly, his body next to hers

Chorus
Maybe it won't make sense
And they would be good, as good as they want to be now
